ORDER OF THE DAY

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Nakamura: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Today at 1:30 p.m. there's going to be an informational briefing sponsored by the House and Senate Committees on Housing and Transportation. The topic of the meeting is an important issue, especially in Honolulu. It's about how do we address the shortage of affordable housing. And you know, there are different ways to approach this. Either you can put them all at one site and impact one community, or you can spread it out along transit-oriented development stations.

"So, this meeting is for members to learn about what's happening along the transit line at the stations by eight state agencies who have been working over the past many years to develop their plans and to share them with you. I encourage all of you to tune in to the House YouTube link at 1:30 p.m. Thank you."

Representative Ward: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to announce that the kickoff of the fellowship luncheon is tomorrow. Everyone, please remember the Mizuno office invitation to book with Christine the plate lunch, which will be right immediately after session, depending on how long we go. And we have a guest speaker called Pastor Jocelyn McMahon. Yes, it's the first woman of the first session of the year for us. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Holt: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As we all know, February is 'Ōlelo Hawai'i month and today is a very auspicious date, which only happens once every hundred years. It's 2/2/22, and it's a day that we all should celebrate and appreciate our *tūtū*s, especially for us in the Hawaiian culture, as evidenced by the representative from Nanakuli's beautiful invocation yesterday. I also take care of my 92-year-old tūtū at home. So just a reminder, give them a call, tell them you love them, give them a hug. But we should all celebrate our *tūtū*s today. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kong: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The Tongan community will be holding a relief drive on Saturday, February 12, from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at The Parish of St. Clement's Episcopal Church. A mailer will be forwarded from the community to each of us, so if you could keep them in mind, please. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."
